

Sound Like A Native English Speaker

Even though you know the vocabulary and the endless grammar rules, you still find it difficult to pronounce English words correctly this struggle with language can make communicating with native English speakers a frustrating experience for both you and them. You supposedly have an Indian Accent, an Accent that is normally expected of most Indians. You may have a good knowledge of the English language but does not guarantee a good accent. But what does a good accent mean? It means an accent that is easy on all ears across the globe, an accent that is understood by all in the international community, no matter who the listener is an American, British, Australian or a Canadian or people from any other country. This Accent is called neutral accent. Improving your English Accent is an easy and enjoyable way to learn and master the most challenging characteristics such as troublesome vowel sounds, difference in stressed and un-stressed syllables and words, which make you sound like a native speaker. This Module develops you to shave off certain excess from your current accent, and develop neutral accent. Gives you the understanding of the American way of speaking, culture and diversity.
